CAN YOU SPOT THE IMPOSTOR?

THINK LIKE A DETECTIVE & SPOT SCAMS BEFORE THEY FOOL YOU.

Week 3 Case Reveal

Which Scenario is The Impostor? >

Whats The Red Flag >

Scenario 1

A family member calls and tells you they've been in a minor car accident. The call comes from their usual phone number, and they ask for help arranging transportation.

Scenario 2

Your college-aged child texts that they've lost their debit card and need help accessing funds. You call them directly and confirm their identity before helping.

Scenario 3

A family member contacts you through a group family chat saying they had a flight canceled and may need some assistance. Multiple family members respond and verify the situation.

Scenario 4

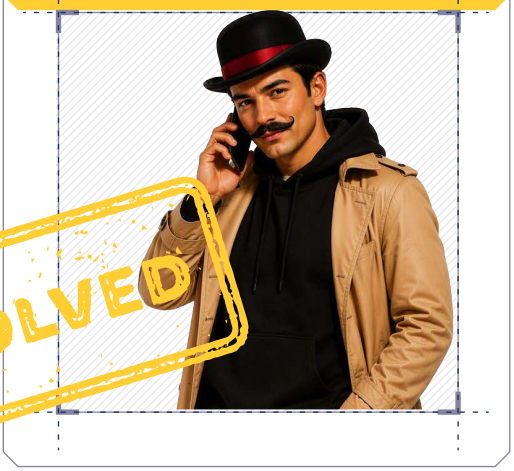

You receive a frantic phone call from someone claiming to be your grandson. He says he's been arrested while traveling and begs you not to tell his parents. Another caller claiming to be an attorney gets on the line and instructs you to immediately wire money for bail.

Here Are The Red Flags:

- UNEXPECTED CALL OR TEXT
- URGENT REQUEST FOR MONEY
- "DON'T TELL ANYONE"
- CAN'T VERIFY THE STORY
- WON'T LET YOU CONTACT YOUR LOVED ONE
- DEMANDS UNUSUAL PAYMENT METHODS

Pause. Reflect. Protect.
